AGTS and Evangel were honored to host Barry Meguiar, president of Meguiar's Inc.

Meguiar spoke to students in chapel services and business classes. A special business and leadership luncheon was held during which he addressed a group of Springfield's top business leaders.

Widely known as a successful businessman and TV host, Meguiar also has a passion to see lay people minister wherever they are planted. This desire led him to found Revival Outside The Walls, a ministry resource to encourage lay people to intentionally share their faith. ROTW challenges lay people to get off the bench (pew) and into the game where the adventure of being a Christian begins.
