COURSE SYLLABUS

COURSE DESCRIPTION

A study of the birth of American Islam, the early waves of Muslim immigration and the evolution of American Islam toward orthodoxy. Emphasis is placed on the implications of Islam’s rapid growth in American society and the Christian’s responsibility to address this challenge.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

Upon successful completion of the course the student will:

1. Assess the history of Islam’s beginnings, growth and present context in the United States.
2. Develop a theology/missiology of engaging and reaching Muslim peoples through the local church.
3. Perceive why, when and where Muslim peoples are in communities and their cultural uniqueness.
4. Formulate a strategy through the local church, to plant church that is made up of Muslim converts to faith in Jesus Christ of the Bible.

NON-DISCRIMINATORY LANGUAGE
Participants should use non-discriminatory language in all written and spoken communication in this class. For specific guidelines, see the Student Handbook at: http://www.agts.edu/community/student_handbook/2012studenthandbook912.pdf.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY
It is assumed that students at AGTS will endeavor to be honest and of high integrity in all matters pertaining to Seminary life. A lack of respect and integrity is evidenced by cheating, fabricating, plagiarizing, misusing facilities, removing books and other property not one’s own and disrupting classes.
“Cheating is defined as intentionally using or attempting to use unauthorized materials, information, or study aids in any academic exercise. It is assumed that whatever work is submitted is the student’s own work and is new work for that course. Fabrication is defined as intentional and unauthorized falsification or invention of any information or citation in an academic exercise or form. Plagiarism is defined as representing the words or ideas of another as one’s own in any academic exercise. One who facilitates any of the above is equally responsible with the primary violator.”[1]

Penalties may include restitution, an "F" on an individual paper, exam, or course; loss of campus employment; disciplinary probation; removal from extracurricular activities; and suspension. AGTS Student Handbook.

DISABILITY ACCOMMODATION
As defined in Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary at Evangel University is committed to the provision of reasonable accommodations for students with disabilities. If you anticipate the need for reasonable accommodations to meet the requirements of this course, you must set up academic accommodations through Academic Support in the Center for Student Success. Contact Stephen Houseknecht, Director of Academic Support, 1111 N. Glenstone Ave, Springfield, MO, 65802, (417) 865-2815 ext. 8271 or email: houseknechts@evangel.edu. Students are required to provide documentation of disability to Academic Support prior to receiving accommodations.

AGTS MISSION STATEMENT
The purpose of AGTS is to train men and women to fulfill the mission of the church as taught in Scripture—Shaping servant leaders with knowledge, skill and passion to revitalize the church and evangelize the world in the power of the Spirit.

EVANGEL MISSION STATEMENT
