OPTION ONE: This is the option for all 4 + 1 students.

1. A student is only allowed to be absent up to 4 classes a semester. It is presupposed that any such absence would be due to extenuating circumstances. However, except for a serious medical emergency, if more than allowed absences take place, it is an automatic withdrawal for that class. If a student is more than 15 minutes tardy for a class, it will be counted as an absence.
2. Two examinations will be given. The examinations will be a combination of objective questions and essays. The test will be based upon the lectures, textbook, the reader, and discussions within class. The examinations will take place on the above noted dates. All students are expected to be present for them (unless an emergency has taken place). There will be a Mid-term examination and a Final examination (Oct 29; Dec 10). The final exam will be comprehensive.
3. A research paper will be required for the class. The paper must be on an area of systematic theology discussed in class. The topic must be cleared by the instructor first. The grading will be accessed on content, argumentation, composition, grammar and form, in that order of importance. Due Nov 22.
4. A reading record of the percentage read of the required readings must be submitted for the final examination. A form will be given to the student for the record, and it must be signed and handed in. Due date Dec 10.

GRADING PROCEDURE:

The examinations are worth 30% of the grade each

The reading record is worth 10% of the grade

OPTION TWO (Professor must be notified by class on Oct 1): for current Masters students

REQUIREMENTS:

1. A student is only allowed to be absent up to 4 classes a semester. It is presupposed that any such absence would be due to extenuating circumstances. However, except for a serious medical emergency, if more than allowed absences take place, it is an automatic withdrawal for that class. If a student is more than 15 minutes tardy for a class, it will be counted as an absence.
2. One comprehensive final examination will be given. This examination will be a combination of objective questions and essays. The test will be based upon the lectures, textbook, the reader, and discussions within class. This examination will take place on Dec. 10. All students are expected to be present for it (unless an emergency has taken place).
3. A research paper will be required for the class. The paper must be on an area of systematic theology discussed in class. The topic must be cleared by the instructor first. The paper should present a specific topic with various (and opposing) positions noted. The paper must be a minimum of 20-25 pages long (not including bibliography), double spaced, using footnotes, and be stylistically in accordance with Turabian (9th edition) and the AGTS style guide. A standard will be adhered to of a minimum of at least 20 sources used and no more than a third of the sources used from internet sources (but their reputability must be substantiated). The grading will be assessed on content, argumentation, composition, grammar and form, in that order of importance. Due Nov 22.
4. A reading record of the percentage read of the required readings must be submitted for the final examination. A form will be given to the student for the record, and it must be signed and handed in. Due date Dec 10.

GRADING PROCEDURE:

The paper is worth 45% of the grade

The comprehensive final examination is worth 45% of the grade

The reading record is worth 10% of the grade

The final grade for either option will follow the AGTS grading scale (in the AGTS Catalog).

Note that the paper is due at the beginning of class on November 22. It will automatically receive a 5 % reduction of grade if it is turned in later than beginning of class on the designated day. 3 days late will see a 10% reduction and one week will see a 15% reduction (with a further 10% reduction for each subsequent week). All assignments must be passed in for a grade to be given. An Incomplete ('I') will only be given if there are extenuating circumstances, and then only if a written request is submitted (if approved, a due date will be given which is non-negotiable).

Students should retain a copy of all work submitted, until they have received a grade for this work.

Students are expected to complete all course work in a timely fashion as specified in this syllabus. A grade of IP (In Process) will be issued if the course ends after the AGTS semester ends. A grade of I (Incomplete) may be granted at the discretion of the professor for extenuating circumstances upon the presentation of the Incomplete Grade Request form: <http://www.agts.edu/academics/forms.html>. The approved Incomplete request will extend the due date for up to ninety days, may include a grade reduction, and will be assessed a grade change fee. Students may not register for courses in a new term if carrying more than two IP or I grades.

ASSESSMENT:

Assignments will be assessed using a standard key or rubrics. The rubrics will be discussed in class. The grades for each assignment will be noted in course commons.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY STATEMENT:

As participants in a Christian university, members of the broader academic community, and active professionals, it is incumbent upon every member of the Evangel community to employ and encourage integrity in all our academic and professional pursuits. Any and every instance of academic dishonesty compromises the mission of Evangel University and violates the standards we hold as people of Christ and practitioners within our professional fields. Students are expected to understand and avoid all forms of academic dishonesty, which includes falsification, cheating, collusion, and plagiarism.

As members of the Evangel community, students share the responsibility to deter and report academic dishonesty. Should a student become aware of a violation of academic integrity, he or she is encouraged to report the incident to a faculty member or department chairperson.

It is the responsibility of the faculty to address any and all acts of academic dishonesty. Sanctions for violations of academic dishonesty can include but are not limited to a failing grade on an assignment, a failing grade for the course, suspension from school, or expulsion from the university. Evangel's policy on academic integrity, as published in the Student Handbook, appears in the section IX. University Policies: Academic Integrity.

ELECTRONIC DEVICES IN THE CLASSROOM: Insert your personal policy, if desired.

EXAMPLE:

- Cell phones should only be used for academic purposes during class. It is not permissible to answer cell phones or engage in text messaging while class is in session. Should an emergency situation arise that requires you to use your cell phone, please make the professor aware of the circumstances.

To customize your Courses list, see the following Help Guide: How do I customize my Courses list?

Students will have access to this course in COURSE COMMONS seven (7) days before the official beginning of the semester. Students have until seven (7) days after the semester begins to complete financial registration. If financial registration is not completed by the seventh day, course access will be revoked.

After the end of the semester, students will have read-only access to the course through COURSE COMMONS. Only access to already submitted work, course resources and grades will be available.

ACCESSING COURSE CONTENT IN COURSE COMMONS

The professor controls the availability of course content and features. Some items may be unavailable until a date set by the professor.

You can navigate the course content and features using the Course Navigation menu on the left. This menu can be customized by the professor, so it may differ from course to course, depending on what features the professor has chosen to make available.

You can collapse the Course Navigation menu to focus on the page content. Click on the menu icon in the upper left (which looks like 3 lines). You can expand the menu by clicking on the menu icon again.

All course content (syllabus, modules, course materials, assignments, online quizzes, online discussions, grades, etc.) can be accessed using the links in the Course Navigation menu. Students can adjust their personal settings in COURSE COMMONS. Click on the Account icon to access the Account menu.

On the Profile page, you can add a profile picture to your account. You can also edit your display name, which will show to your instructor and peers throughout COURSE COMMONS.

The Settings link allows you to add additional contact methods (personal email or cell phone number for text message alerts) to your account. You can also add external services, like Twitter, Skype or Google Drive.

The Notifications link allows you to customize what notifications you receive from COURSE COMMONS and how and when you receive them.

This is a student-centered feature that allows you to optimize your notifications to help you stay connected to what is happening in all your courses.

For more information, see the following pages in the COURSE COMMONS Student Orientation: How to Update your Profile and Settings and How to Update Your Notifications Preferences.

ACCESSING GRADES IN COURSE COMMONS

All course grades will be recorded and shown through COURSE COMMONS. Simply click the “Grades” button on the lower right of the Dashboard to access your grades for all courses. You can also use the Grades link in the Course Navigation to access your grades for this course.

For more information on how to check your grades and what you can do from the Grades page, see the following page from the COURSE COMMONS Student Orientation: How to Check My Grades.
