Course Policies & Requirements

Preparation

] In order to succeed in this class, students should arrange to have regular access to a computer, the internet, Evangel email and Course Commons. This class will use Course Commons for all course communication, interaction, content, announcements, collaboration and assignments. Also, having a computer in class while not a necessity, will greatly aid in learning (however, it is assumed that the usage of electronic devices will be for note taking or related searches to the class discussion. Use of these devices for other purposes is prohibited.)

Participation

Students will be expected to regularly contribute to the class, collaborate with one another, and to “learn by doing.”

Attendance

A student is only allowed to be absent up to 4 classes a semester. It is presupposed that any such absence would be due to extenuating circumstances. However, except for a serious medical emergency, if more than allowed absences take place, it is an automatic withdrawal for that class. If a student is more than 15 minutes tardy for a class, it will be counted as an absence.

Assignments

OPTION ONE (all 4 + 1 students need to take this option):

1. A student is only allowed to be absent up to 4 classes a semester. It is presupposed that any such absence would be due to extenuating circumstances. However, except for a serious medical emergency, if more than allowed absences take place, it is an automatic withdrawal for that class. If a student is more than 15 minutes tardy for a class, it will be counted as an absence.
2. Two examinations will be given. The examinations will be a combination of objective questions and essays. The test will be based upon the lectures, textbook, the reader, and discussions within class. The examinations will take place on the above noted dates. All students are expected to be present for them (unless an emergency has taken place). There will be a Mid-term examination (Mar. 24) and a Final examination (April 23). The final exam will be comprehensive.

3. A research paper will be required for the class. The paper must be on an area of systematic theology discussed in class. The topic must be cleared by the instructor first. The paper should present a specific topic with various (and opposing) positions noted. The paper must be a minimum of 10 pages long (not including bibliography), double spaced, using footnotes, and be stylistically in accordance with the AGTS style-guide parameters (<https://agts.edu/current-students/academic-writing-resources/>). A standard will be adhered to of a minimum of at least 10 sources used and no more than a third of the sources used from internet sources (but their reputability must be substantiated). The grading will be accessed on content, argumentation, composition, grammar and form, in that order of importance. Due April 15, 5 PM CST.
4. A reading record of the percentage read of the required readings must be submitted for the final examination. A form will be given to the student for the record, and it must be signed and handed in. Due date April 23.

GRADING PROCEDURE:

Assignment Group	Total Points	Weight
Research Paper	300 pts.	30%
Mid-term exam	300 pts.	30%
Final exam	300 pts	30%

If a student is more than 15 minutes tardy for a class, it will be counted as an absence.
2. One comprehensive final examination will be given. This examination will be a combination of objective questions and essays. The test will be based upon the lectures, textbook, the reader, and discussions within class. This examination will take place on April 23. All students are expected to be present for it (unless an emergency has taken place).
3. A research paper will be required for the class. The paper must be on an area of systematic theology discussed in class. The topic must be cleared by the instructor first. Writing Style Guide

All formal papers (unless otherwise specified by the instructor) are to be formatted according to the AGTS Writing Style Guide \(https://agts.edu/current-students/academic-writing-resources/\).

Communication

Good communication is essential to success in seminary and beyond. If you know that you have not been able to access the course for more than 3 days, please let me know as soon as possible.

If you have a question, comment or suggestion, feel free to contact me. You may contact me by phone, email, or through Course Commons. I will respond to emails/messages within 48 business hours.

Assessment

The grading rubrics for major assignments will be available with the assignment instructions. For most assignments, grades will be posted in Course Commons within 2 weeks to allow the professor time to provide detailed feedback along with the evaluation.

Grading Policy

The grading procedures are dependent if option 1 or option 2 is followed (see above).

Late/Missed Assignment Policy

The Research paper is due at the beginning of class on April 15, 5 PM CST. It will automatically receive a 5 % reduction of grade if it is turned in later than beginning of class on the designated day. 3 days late will see a 10% reduction and one week will see a 15% reduction (with a further 10% reduction for each subsequent week). All assignments must be passed in for a grade to be given.

Grading Scale

Grades will be based on the number of points accumulated by completing all assignments. The following grading scale applies:

100% ▶	93% ▶	89% ▶	86% ▶	83% ▶	80% ▶	76% ▶	73% ▶	69% ▶	66% ▶	63% ▶	59% ▶

Grade Access

All course grades will be recorded and shown through Course Commons. Simply click the “Grades” link in the course menu. For more information on how to check your grades and what you can do from this page, see How Do I View My Grades?

The Temporary Grade of Incomplete

An Incomplete (‘I’) will only be given if there are extenuating circumstances, and then only if a written request is submitted (if approved, a due date will be given which is non-negotiable). The request for an Incomplete should be student-initiated. The Incomplete (I) Grade Request Form may be obtained from the AGTS website (<http://agts.edu/wp-content/uploads/2018/04/Incomplete-Grade-Request.pdf>) for the AGTS masters students or through the administrative assistance for 4 + 1 students.

Policies Addendum

Academic Integrity

As participants in a Christian university, members of the broader academic community, and active professionals, it is incumbent upon every member of the Evangel community to employ and encourage integrity in all our academic and professional pursuits. Any and every instance of academic dishonesty compromises the mission of Evangel University and violates the standards we hold as people of Christ and practitioners within our professional fields. Students are expected to understand and avoid all forms of academic dishonesty, which includes falsification, cheating, collusion, and plagiarism.

As members of the Evangel community, students share the responsibility to deter and report academic dishonesty. Should a student become aware of a violation of academic integrity, he or she is encouraged to report the incident to a faculty member or department chairperson.

It is the responsibility of the faculty to address any and all acts of academic dishonesty. Sanctions for violations of academic dishonesty can include but are not limited to a failing grade on an assignment, a failing grade for the course, suspension from school, or expulsion from the university. Evangel's policy on academic integrity, as published in the Student Handbook, appears in the section IX. University Policies: Academic Integrity.

Accommodation Statement

Evangel University is committed to equal educational opportunities for students with disabilities in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the American with Disabilities Act as amended (ADA). Academic Support, a division of the Center for Student Success, is the office designated by Evangel University to review disability documentation, determine reasonable accommodations, and develop plans for the provision of such accommodations.

If you have already established accommodations through Academic Support and receive accommodation memos, please meet with me to discuss the provisions of those accommodations as soon as possible (accommodations are not retroactive). If you have not yet established accommodations, but have a disability or health condition (permanent or temporary) that may have some impact on your work in this class and for which you may require accommodations, you are welcome to contact Academic Support staff in the Center for Student Success (ZM-208; 417-865-2815 x.8215) so that accommodations can be arranged. See the Disability and Academic Accommodations Handbook for further information on the accommodations process.

Inclusive Language

The Assemblies of God Theological Seminary employs inclusive language for human beings in both verbal and written communication. This commitment to equality and community is rooted in the biblical revelation of God's will to form one united people, including men and women from every nation, people, tongue, and tribe (Rev 7:7-9). In regard to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected. Students must use inclusive language in all assignments.

Electronic Devices in the Classroom

It is expected that electronic devices will be used during class to support the students' learning. Any use of technology that substantially degrades the learning environment or promotes dishonesty or illegal activities is prohibited.

Cell phones should only be used for academic purposes during class. It is not permissible to answer cell phones or engage in text messaging while class is in session. Should an emergency situation arise that requires you to use your cell phone, please make the professor aware of the circumstances.

You can also add external services, like Twitter, Skype or Google Drive.

The Notifications link allows you to customize what notifications you receive from Course Commons and how and when you receive them. This is a student-centered feature that allows you to optimize your notifications to help you stay connected to what is happening in all your courses.
