Course Prerequisites
Since the course is the final research project for each degree program, students are advised to take this as one of their last courses.

Course Purpose
As noted in the course description, this course will assist students in preparing their final research project.

Course Policies & Requirements

Preparation
In order to succeed in this class, students should be in every classroom session and also have regular access to a computer, the internet, Evangel email and Course Commons. This class will use Course Commons for all course assignments.

Participation
Students will be expected to regularly contribute to the class, collaborate with one another, and to “learn by doing.”

Attendance
A student is only allowed to be absent up to 2 weeks of classes a semester (or 1 day of a module). It is presupposed that any such absence would be due to extenuating circumstances. However, except for a serious medical emergency, if more than allowed absences take place, it is an automatic withdrawal for that class.
Assignments

1. Reading Report: Read the required textbook and complete a reading affidavit and reflection form on the assigned date. This form is not a book report, nor formal critique. Rather, it is a personal reflections on the 3 or 4 key insights that most impacted your understanding and/or practice of graduate level writing. Reading report will comprise 5% of the total course grade.

2. Course Discussion Forums (CDFs) and Dropboxes: Complete each of the CDFs & Dropbox assignments by the due dates noted in the course outline. CDFs & Dropboxes will comprise 15% of the total course grade.

3. Assessment: Complete the assessment by the due date noted in the course outline.

4. Final Project: Complete and submit the final summative project for the course to the Course Commons dropbox as directed in the course outline. Final project will comprise 80% of the total course grade.

Writing Style Guide

All formal papers (unless otherwise specified by the instructor) are to be formatted according to the AGTS Writing Style Guide.

Communication

If you have a question, comment or suggestion, feel free to contact me. You may contact me by phone, email, or through Course Commons. I will respond to emails/messages within 24 hours. I expect students to stay on top of communication that I send to them. Please be sure to set up your notifications so that you are daily connected to what’s happening in our class.

Assessment

The grading rubrics for major assignments will be available with the assignment instructions. For most assignments, grades will be posted in Course Commons within 7 days to allow the professor time to provide detailed feedback along with the evaluation.

Late/Missed Assignment Policy

The assignments are set up for the course to create a weekly rhythm of learning. If the student anticipates the need to submit an assignment later than the prescribed due date, contact the professor to provide the anticipated date of submission. With the exception of the note below, no other assignments will be graded down for late submission.

NOTE: However, the small group discussion assignments are time sensitive. Everyone must submit the original posting by its due date in order to provide the other small group members with an opportunity to review and reflect before posting their responses. Original posts will be reduced by 5 pts per day beyond the due date. The same is true of the response postings.

- Please be proactive in your assignment preparation and submission!
• If there are any difficulties in submitting an assignment, please email me immediately!
• Difficulties with an assignment? Contact me before the due date!

Grading Scale

Grades will be based on the number of points accumulated by completing assignments, projects, and quizzes. The following grading scale applies:

I will attempt to grade assignments and provide feedback within 48 hours of the assignment due date. Larger assignments/projects may take up to 1 week to grade so that feedback can be provided. Please pay attention to notifications of graded items and recent feedback. I expect students to review and learn from the feedback that I provide on their assignments.

The Temporary Grade of Incomplete

An “I” (Incomplete) applies to work of acceptable quality when one or more required assignments are not completed because of illness, accident, death in the family, or other satisfactory reason. The request for an Incomplete should be student-initiated. The Incomplete (I) Grade Request Form may be obtained from the AGTS website under administrative forms.

Provided in class as needed.

Specific Data

Syllabus prepared by Dr. Randy C. Walls, Fall 2019.
Academic Integrity

As participants in a Christian university, members of the broader academic community, and active professionals, it is incumbent upon every member of the Evangel community to employ and encourage integrity in all our academic and professional pursuits. Any and every instance of academic dishonesty compromises the mission of Evangel University and violates the standards we hold as people of Christ and practitioners within our professional fields. Students are expected to understand and avoid all forms of academic dishonesty, which includes falsification, cheating, collusion, and plagiarism.

As members of the Evangel community, students share the responsibility to deter and report academic dishonesty. Should a student become aware of a violation of academic integrity, he or she is encouraged to report the incident to a faculty member or department chairperson.

It is the responsibility of the faculty to address any and all acts of academic dishonesty. Sanctions for violations of academic dishonesty can include but are not limited to a failing grade on an assignment, a failing grade for the course, suspension from school, or expulsion from the university. Evangel’s policy on academic integrity, as published in the Student Handbook, appears in the section IX. University Policies: Academic Integrity.

Accommodation Statement

Evangel University is committed to equal educational opportunities for students with disabilities in accordance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the American with Disabilities Act as amended (ADA). Academic Support, a division of the Center for Student Success, is the office designated by Evangel University to review disability documentation, determine reasonable accommodations, and develop plans for the provision of such accommodations.

If you have already established accommodations through Academic Support and receive accommodation memos, please meet with me to discuss the provisions of those accommodations as soon as possible (accommodations are not retroactive). If you have not yet established accommodations, but have a disability or health condition (permanent or temporary) that may have some impact on your work in this class and for which you may require accommodations, you are welcome to contact Academic Support staff in the Center for Student Success (ZM-208; 417-865-2815 x.8215) so that accommodations can be arranged. See the Disability and Academic Accommodations Handbook for further information on the accommodations process.

Inclusive Language

The Assemblies of God Theological Seminary employs inclusive language for human beings in both verbal and written communication. This commitment to equality and community is rooted in the biblical revelation of God’s will to form one united people, including men and women from every nation, people, tongue, and tribe (Rev 7:7–9). In regard to biblical texts, the integrity of the original expressions and the names of God should be respected. Students must use inclusive language in all assignments.
Electronic Devices in the Classroom

It is expected that electronic devices will be used during class to support the students’ learning. Any use of technology that substantially degrades the learning environment or promotes dishonesty or illegal activities is prohibited.

Cell phones should only be used for academic purposes during class. It is not permissible to answer cell phones or engage in text messaging while class is in session. Should an emergency situation arise that requires you to use your cell phone, please make the professor aware of the circumstances.

Course Commons Student Orientation
All Evangel students have access to the Course Commons Student Orientation. If you are new to Course Commons, you are encouraged to take advantage of this excellent resource. As part of your course preparation, this will help you make the most of the features that are available to you as a student.

Accessing the Course in Course Commons
Access your courses list by clicking on the Courses icon on the Global Navigation menu on the left of the screen. You can also click on the course card on the Dashboard.

To customize your Courses list, see the following Help Guide: How do I customize my Courses list?

Students will have access to this course in Course Commons seven (7) days before the official beginning of the semester. If students have not completed their financial registration by the first official day of class, their course access will be revoked.

After the end of the semester, students will have read-only access to the course through Course Commons. Only access to already submitted work, course resources and grades will be available.

Accessing Course Content in Course Commons
The professor controls the availability of course content and features. Some items may be unavailable until a date set by the professor.
You can navigate the course content and features using the Course Navigation menu on the left. This menu can be customized by the professor, so it may differ from course to course, depending on what features the professor has chosen to make available.
You can collapse the Course Navigation menu to focus on the page content. Click on the menu icon in the upper left (which looks like 3 lines). You can expand the menu by clicking on the menu icon again.
