ABOUT THE COURSE:

This course is an introduction to studying the OT at a graduate level. That means that it deals with major scholarly issues and important ancient Near Eastern background information, as well as summarizing key content and concepts for understanding the message and teaching of the OT.

It is highly recommended that the student have read through the Old Testament in recent years. Such basic knowledge will be assumed in the course.

SUMMARY OF COURSE REQUIREMENTS:

There is reading of the textbooks and numerous documents provided by the professor.

As an online course, there are weekly assignments that should require about eight hours total of reading and writing.

There is no research paper or exam for this course.

Details on the requirements and a bibliography will be a part of the syllabus, which will be available at least a week prior to class, through course commons.
